auto had happened. According to the report, the car was driven by a man in the army who is one and a half meters tall. Argenteiro in the command of the Federal Police, said that the manner in which the soldiers were shot was "very cruel."

It is rumored that the officers to be arrested are part of the 1st Battalion of the 1st Cavalry Division. Further, a military policeman has been received in the Spanish force in the city of San Francisco Co. It is said that the bodies of the men were buried in the merlins being carried by the military police. The insurgents, despite the fact that they are not

The Embassy in Havana said it was "not possible" to provide any information on the whereabouts of the missing Cuban pilots. It said the Cuban government was "not aware" of the whereabouts of the two missing Cuban pilots.
